UNIVERSITY OF EVANSVILLE LIBRARIES

A name in the college story since 1929 when he began his duties here is that of Dean Long. Since that time he has held the posts of professor of economics and business administration, serving as the head of the department from 1929-1949; athletic business manager; director of Evening College; vice president and director of adult education and more recently — since June, 1954 — acting president of the College. Through his enthusiasm in every phase of college life, Dean Long has become the sincere friend and respected advisor of students — whether it be leading yells at an assembly or performing his many official duties.

At the February 7 meeting of the Board of Trustees, Dr. Melvin W. Hyde, assistant president of Drake University, was named president of the College.

UNION BUILDING

Newest building on the campus is the McCurdy Alumni Memorial Union, which was completed on January 21, 1951. Three stories high, the building contains 40,000 square feet of floor space. The exterior is of Indiana limestone to match the other permanent buildings. Within its walls are a modern cafeteria, lounges, a game room, a snack-bar and grill, a patio, committee rooms and the Great Hall used for social and cultural events. All furnishings are modern.

ENGINEERING-SCIENCE BUILDING

Completely modern in both its construction and design for education, the three-floor Engineering-Science Building ranks among the finest in the country. Built of Indiana limestone and equipped with fluorescent lighting throughout, it contains 59,000 square feet of floor space. The building, completed on September 22, 1947, houses 20 laboratories, 12 classrooms and 16 offices. Included are laboratories for biology, chemistry, physics, engineering and electronics. All are equipped with the latest scientific apparatus.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Dedicated on June 16, 1922, the Administration Building is the hub from which activity originates on the 70-acre campus. Included in its four floors are offices of the administration and part of the faculty, in addition to classrooms. Also in this building are the library, bookstore, audio-visual and home economics laboratories, auditorium and the College's educational FM radio station. Latest addition toward beautifying the campus is the Indiana limestone combination sign-bench decking the front lawn. The new marker is the gift of the Thorp Construction Company through its president, Alf Thorp.

PRESIDENT'S HOME

To the southwest of the "Ad" Building is the President's home, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Igleheart. The two-story home was erected in 1928.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Rosemary Mohr

Chi Omega

Last year's Icebreaker Queen, Rosemary Mohr, again made headlines when she was elected the 1954 Homecoming Queen. Typifying the American college beauty, 19-year-old Rosie is an elementary education major.

ICEBREAKER QUEEN

Joyce Reed

Chi Omega

New on campus, vivacious Joyce Reed was elected by the freshmen to rule over their Icebreaker Dance. A Bosse graduate, Joyce is a talented music major who hopes to teach come spring of '58.

PHI ZETA SWEETHEART

Joyce Reed

Chi Omega

The Phi Zetas honored Joyce Reed with a second beauty title when they selected her as their 1954 Sweetheart. Joyce, who is 17 years old, was also the Icebreaker Queen this year.

BASKETBALL QUEEN

Shirley Dauble

Beta Sigma Omicron

Another freshman took top honors this year when Shirley Dauble was chosen Basketball Queen. The 18-year-old coed is a petite blonde in the Music School. Personable Shirley was also an attendant to the Icebreaker Queen.

AFROTC HONORARY WING COMMANDER

Rosemary Mohr

Chi Omega

Pretty Rosemary Mohr was commissioned Honorary Cadet Colonel at the fourth annual Military Ball. Rosemary, who is graduating in three years, was also chosen co-queen of the local 1954 Auto Show.

JUNIOR PROM QUEEN

Marilyn Randolph

Alpha Omicron Pi

Marilyn Randolph, a tall blonde beauty in the School of Education, reigned as the 1954 Junior Prom Queen. A senior, 23-year-old Marilyn was also the 1953 Homecoming Queen. On February 27, she became Mrs. Donald Bernhardt.

MAY QUEEN

Joanne Clark

INCA

Joanne Clark, a transfer student from Miami University in Ohio, was crowned May Queen of 1954. A sparkling brunette, Joanne also served as Maid of Honor to the Homecoming Queen in 1953. She is now teaching school in Ohio.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Bill Steier
President

Following last May's elections, the Student Government Association officers started the school year with high hopes and a determination to do the best job they possibly could. The students selected Bill Steier, Pi Epsilon Phi, president; Bob Rundell, Independent, vice president; Carolyn Lockwood, Beta Sigma Omicron, secretary, and Marilyn Randolph, Alpha Omicron Pi, treasurer.

Bill started his duties early in the summer when he represented Evansville at the National Student Association Congress. The chairmen for the Student Faculty Federation, Homecoming, Dad's Day, and May Day committees were selected and each did a fine job during the year. The Federation Committees were kept busy with their never-ending jobs, but the chairmen always found time for the Student Council meetings.

The student officers tried something new this year when they set up the President's Roundtable. The idea worked well, and it may become a permanent thing on campus.

Committee members agreed that student government has a lot to offer the student body and hope that next year's student government can be made still better.

Two juniors and 11 seniors were named Campus Leaders and Campus Notables for the 1954-55 school year. Leaders, who must be seniors, are chosen on the basis of outstanding leadership shown on campus. Notables, in addition to leadership qualities, must exemplify in their life and conduct the seven virtues of the college seal. Notables shall not exceed 7% of the graduating class; however, two may be drawn from the junior class.

This year 33 students were nominated as Campus Notables and 18 for Campus Leaders. Both students and faculty participated in the selection, with the final selection by ballot vote of all faculty. Formal recognition of the honor was made at the regular May Day-Honors Day program when the group was presented.

SYMPHONIC BAND

Continuing under the direction of Wesley Shepard, the College Band finished its ninth successful year. The first appearance by the Symphonic Band was on January 24 with Sigurd Rascher, saxophonist, as guest artist. Mr. Rascher also appeared in the Tuesday Freshman Convocation. Next, the Band combined with the Choir to present their annual Mid-Winter Concert on March 28. The final concert of the season was on June 3. This program, a twilight concert, was presented on the front lawn. At each of these concerts the Band performed outstanding works such as those commissioned by the College Band Directors' National Association, works by Perschietti, and excellent orchestral transcriptions by Wesley Shepard. Through these orchestral transcriptions, Wesley Shepard achieved national recognition by being elected to active membership in the American Bandmasters' Association. Also receiving widespread recognition were the Marching Band and its director, Norman Heim. Presenting the finest in half-time shows, the dust-covered members did excellent work.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Although a majority of the members were freshmen this year, the Evansville College Choir maintained its customary high standards. Conducted by Margaret Taylor Shepard, the Choir opened its fall tour November 18, singing at the Indiana Music Educators' Association Convention in Indianapolis. Before returning home, the Choir appeared at Greenwood and Spencer, Indiana. The organization also took part in the annual Christmas production, "Eager Heart," which was presented on the campus and again on WEHT-TV Christmas Eve. The Spring tour date was April 25-26.

Making its first appearance, since being reactivated this fall, the Little Symphony Orchestra was under the direction of Norman Heim. The Little Symphony presented the finest in orchestral works as well as accompaniments for junior and senior recitals. Woodwind and brass ensembles gave students another chance to learn more music literature and express themselves in small groups. Excellent faculty recitals and the Alabama String Quartet, which appeared on October 18, also furthered the musical understanding of EC students.

LIBRARY

Newest addition to the ever-expanding college campus will be the $650,000 library. Similar to the Union and Engineering-Science Buildings, it will be built of Indiana limestone. The new library will have open stacks, allowing all readers direct access to the regular book collection, with a small area set aside for reserve books. In addition, study alcoves will be provided in the stacks, bringing students closer to books in their field of interest.

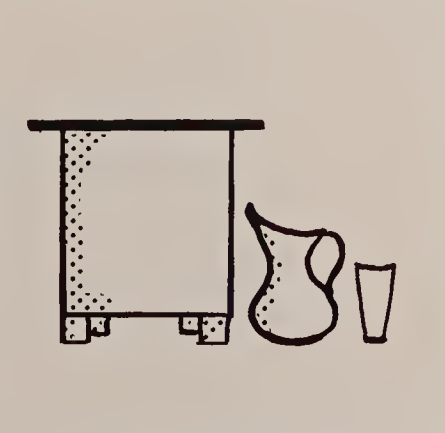

STAFF

Beverly T. Moss, Blanche Hill, Thomas S. Harding

The old library, housed in the Administration Building since 1922, will continue to serve students until the new library is built. At present, the library contains more than 38,000 volumes. Over 300 periodicals are received regularly and extensive back files are maintained. As a result of the crowded conditions, books have been stored on the third and fourth floors of the "Ad" Building, in the Chemistry Library and in the Browsing Room of the Union.

HOME

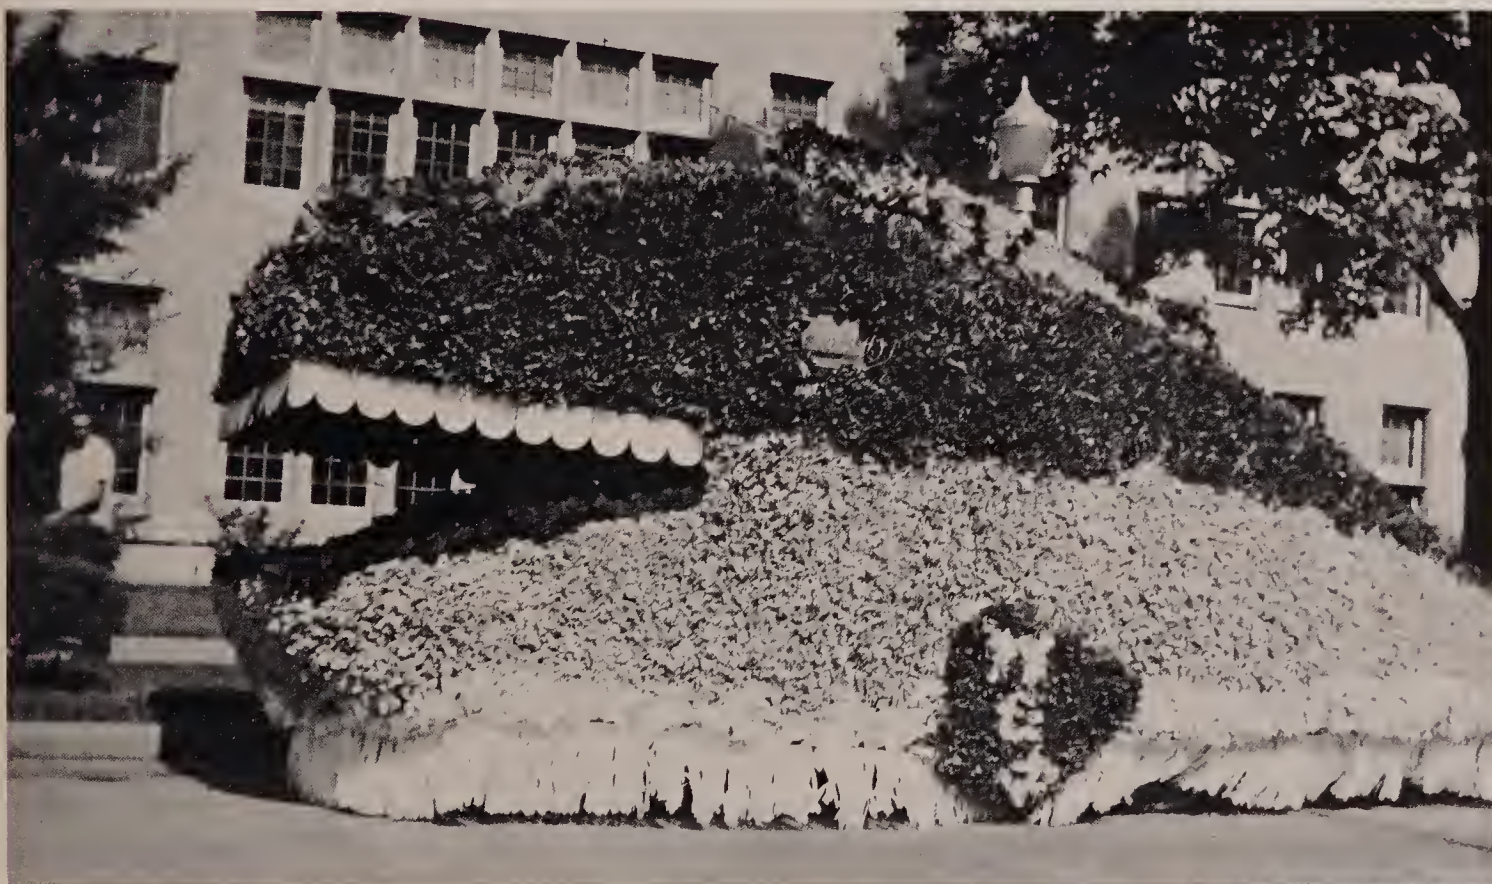

This year's Centennial Homecoming, under the general direction of Jack Combs and crew, proved to be the finest in many years. On tap to start the bubbling activity was the annual Revlon Bowl tilt, which spelled victory for the AOPi-Phi Mu's, who pulled a safety for the only score of the game. Capping the day's activities was a bonfire-pep rally for the already slightly weary celebrants. Bud Schultheis and Jim Schreiber planned the rally, complete with doughnuts and cider.

COMING

The float parade and campus displays came next on the program, with student enthusiasm and homecoming fervor hitting an all-time high. Topping the men's division was Pi Epsilon Phi with its warning, "Valpo's in for a Whale of a Time." Fraternity competition of campus displays was taken by Phi Zetas' huge spider web, strung from the top of their house to the ground. Beta Sigma Omicron with its "100 Years of Victory" captured first-place honors in the sorority float division. Campus display awards in the mixed judging went to Kappa Chi, and in the sorority group to the Ivy Leaf Club.

The AOPi float was featured as a birthday cake centerpiece for the Centennial Homecoming dance. The dance, chairmanned by Wally Redman, took place in the Armory amid the floating, danceable notes of Art Engels. Homecoming ended with a spirited feeling of victory made complete by Evansville emerging victorious over the Valparaiso Crusaders, 26 to 19.

While Head Coach Ping was on a leave of absence campaigning for sheriff, the Aces began their '54 season under the tutelage of Paul Beck. Practicing twice a day during the hottest morning and afternoon hours, they "sweated" into shape for their opener with DePauw. The Aces made a flashy appearance at DePauw with white uniforms and new black headgear. The squad proved as flashy as their uniforms, swamping the Tigers, 30-7. E.C. showed three fine quarterbacks this game with J. O. Jackson's generalship standing out. Bill Parish led the running attack and also scored two T. D.'s.

The following week, Evansville began its home stand, playing host to Butler University. The Aces, never quite getting their offense into high gear, were defeated, 21-14. Even in defeat, there were two bright spots in the Evansville picture. Quarterback Bud George did some fine passing, and Ken Lutterbach gained many yards on bull-like rushes up the middle.

At its next outing, E.C. entertained the Sycamores from Indiana State. Rolland Eckels, together with the Economy Food Centers, provided the Aces with a super-market crowd of 9,000 fans. The Aces caught fire in the second half and defeated the Sycamores, 41-6. Kenny Lutterbach and Bob Scott did outstanding jobs at fullback and center, respectively.

The next game featured Valparaiso trying to ruin the Aces' Homecoming as the Aces had theirs the year before. The hopes of the Crusaders met with little success, as the Aces won a team victory, 26-19. Only a leaky E.C. pass defense kept the Crusaders in the ball game.

Evansville had its crack at the big time the following Saturday. Guests of the Louisville Cardinals, the Aces tightened up and were defeated, 26-6. The lone E.C. touchdown was scored when Bob Scott blocked a Louisville punt.

At St. Joe, the Aces came from three touchdowns in the hole to defeat the Pumas, 27-20. Dick Sinclair did a fine bit of quarterbacking the second half, while Bill "come lately" Parish and Ken Lutterbach spearheaded the running attack.

In St. Louis, the Aces went stone cold and were snowed under, 42-7. The Washington Bears, displaying a powerful single-wing, turned in their best performance of the year against the Aces.

Back home again, the Aces met the Ball State Cardinals. Evansville led at the half, 7-6, but was defeated in a fourth quarter flurry, 25-7.

In the concluding game of the season, the Aces upset the visiting Hilltoppers from Western Kentucky to the tune of 21-13. The win was a team victory for the Aces, as they turned in one of their best performances of the season.

Evansville College opened its '54-'55 basketball season by blasting Oakland City out of the Armory. When the smoke cleared E. C. was ahead, 100-58. The next game E. C. again hit and passed the century mark. Lawrence Tech was never in this game as the Aces won, 108-72. During the first game of a three-game road trip, the Aces dropped a three-pointer to Valparaiso, 72-69. The following night, however, the squad routed St. Joe, 105-91. After a long, tiring trip to Detroit, the hardwood players bowed to Lawrence Tech, 80-76. Coming home for some much needed rest, they traveled next to Greencastle and rolled over DePauw, 83-68.

Climaxing five straight games on the road, the Aces defeated the Oaks at Oakland City, 93-72. Then returning home, for their last game before Christmas and the Owensboro tourney, E. C. again met Valpo in the most thrilling game to date, with the Aces winning, 66-63, after stalling out the last two and a half minutes. The Aces then faced Denver U. in first-round holiday tourney play. The E. C. offense proved too powerful for Denver, as the Aces raced to a 96-81 victory. In second-round play, they lost to a red-hot Cincinnati team, 82-62. But Coach McCutchan's charges came back to take third place, beating Rhode Island, 115-85.

Next the Aces traveled to Terre Haute to meet Indiana State. Led by John Harrawood, they slipped by the Sycamores, 79-76. Back on their home floor, Jerry Clayton set a new scoring record of 35 points in one game, as the Aces trimmed the Ball State Cardinals, 93-80. In the next game Frank Healy's spectacular floor game set E. C. up for a 74-60 win over Washington U. Playing away from home again, the netsters dropped a heartbreaker to Butler, 75-73. Coming back to the Armory the Aces licked their neighbors from across the river, 82-70; Kentucky Wesleyan put up a good fight but the balanced punch of E. C. was too much. Traveling to Muncie, Evansville again met Ball State, and Bob Walker led the Aces to a 91-82 victory.

Back at the Armory, the purple and white chargers overpowered the Butler Bulldogs, 83-75; then traveled to St. Louis to defeat the Washington Bears, 74-67, in a wild game during which 101 shots were tried from the free-throw line. For the next game the Aces crossed the river again to play Kentucky Wesleyan. Unable to slow down the opposition, they lost a close one, 74-71. Next the cagers made their TV debut against DePauw. It proved to be quite a spectacle; the Aces won, 90-68, and a queen was crowned between halves. The following game, the hoopsters blasted Indiana State, 104-70, to clinch a share of the I.C.C. crown. Senior Roscoe Bivin sparked the team in this contest. In the last of the regular-season games, the Aces entertained St. Joe. This was also "Gus Doerner Night" and the purple and white chargers presented him with a win over the Pumas, 101-81.

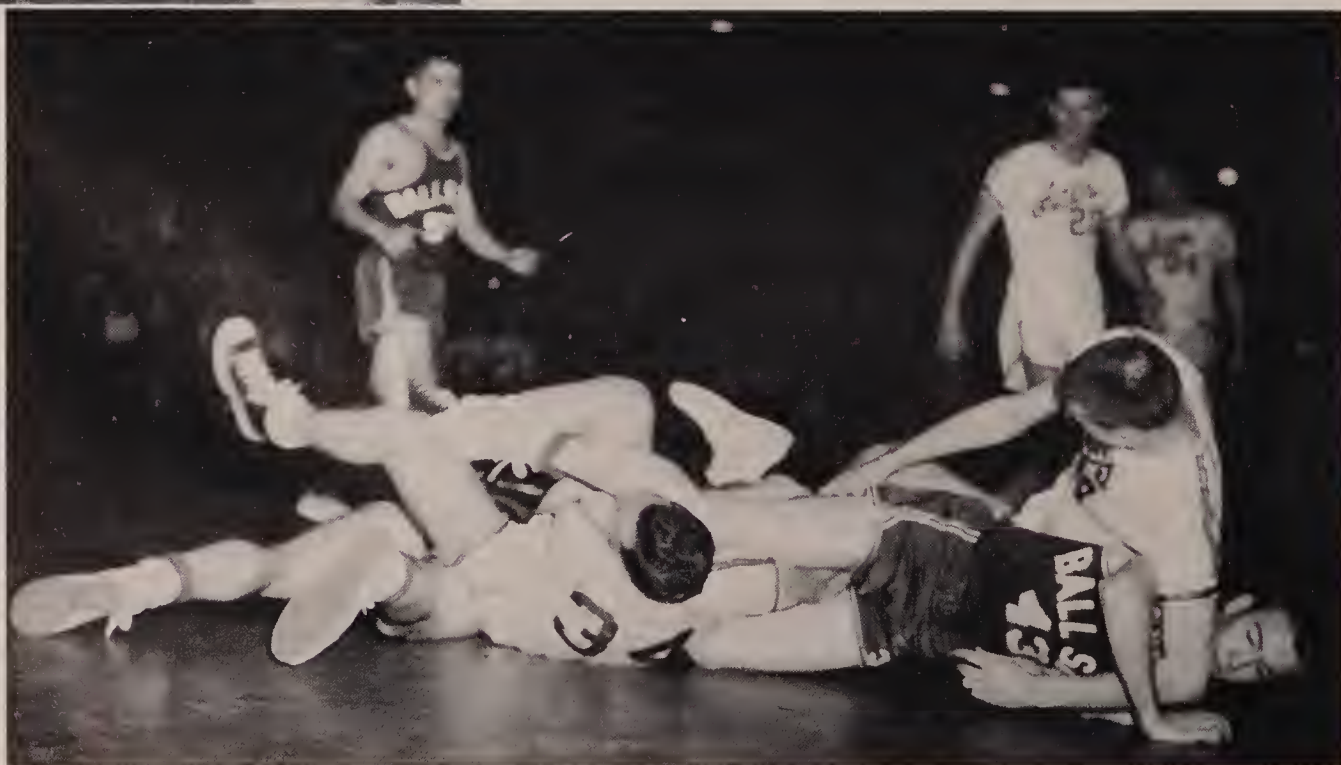

Winding up with an 18-5 record, Evansville received an invitation to play in the N.A.I.A. tourney, held locally. E. C. swept through the regional play-offs, defeating Franklin's Hotdogs, 87-75, and Anderson College, 96-79. Then in the opening round at Kansas City, the Purple Aces lost to tall Atlantic Christian, 95 to 88. E. C. closed its season with a 20 and 6 record.

Bob Wessel, reserve forward, floats through the air as he scores on a fast break while two Ball State defenders watch for the rebound in another of the Aces' wins at the Armory.

Bob Walker, junior guard, attempts to block one of Indiana State's shots midway in the second half while John Harrawood races in. This was the second time the Aces ran by State this season.

Frank Healy, the Aces' ball hawk and sparkplug, blocks a shot in the St. Joseph game as Jerry Clayton, Evansville's unanimous all-conference selection, is close by for the possible rebound. This was one of the Aces' twelve straight victories on their home floor.

Gene Wilm and Bob Wessel seem to tie things up in a knot with the Ball State players as Frank Healy and Clyde Cox watch.

Corky Thompson, second baseman, throws out Paul Kinney in an intra-squad game as Clyde Cox stretches for the throw. Thompson, the leading batter on the diamond brigade last season, was one of the nine returning veterans in Coach Don Ping's plans. Cox, a nifty first baseman, is a transfer student from Tulane and Kinney's a reserve outfielder.

REVLON BOWL

The annual Revlon Bowl tilt, featuring the AOPi-Phi Mu gridders against the Chi O-Beta Sig chargers, resulted in a 2-0 victory for the AOPi-Phi Mu's who now hold a 3-2 edge in games won. Right, Bill Mattingly has the situation well in hand as he shows Marilyn Bartlett the correct method of centering a ball. JoAnn Deneke, Sara Rupp and Mary Lou Taylor wait their turn.

However, training didn't stop with centering a ball. Left, Sam Hancock, J. O. Jackson, Phil Aramowicz and Bill Mattingly fearlessly play decoy as Phyllis Hachmeister, Phyllis Campbell, Alice Christmas and Lois Ryon unveil a few of their trade secrets. Below, George Baxter referees while Lois Ryon, JoAnn Deneke, Joan Bosse, Dana Erhardt, Mary Lou Taylor and Phyllis Hachmeister line up against Marilyn Bartlett, Jo Frohbieter, Phyllis Campbell, Sara Rupp and Connie Miller.

CHEERLEADERS

Watkins Moman, N. Bartlett Conaway, C. Barthlow

For the first time, the student body selected cheerleaders in an all-campus election. Previously, the yell leaders were voted on by a student-faculty committee.

Buddy Watkins, sophomore, is the only new member of this year's squad. A graduate of Bosse High School, Bud was the acrobatic mainstay of the pepsters. Peppy Bud rallied behind the team and the coaches.

Nealie, the younger of the Moman sisters, is a veteran of two years yelling experience. Prior to college, she was also a cheerleader at Morganfield, Kentucky. Perky and limber, Nealle cheered the team onward.

Marilyn Bartlett, the bouncy junior with the needed spark to enthuse the cheering section, was always full of pep. Another Bosse graduate, Marilyn was a dependable gal all three years at E.C.

Carolyn Conaway, a two-year letter winner, was always out in front as captain of the squad. Carolyn, also a product of Bosse, was loaded with enthusiasm and added another graceful touch to the squad.

Doug Barthlow, the sophomore with the energy to evoke roars from the fans, performed with versatile ability again this year. A Central graduate, Doug gained experience leading yells in high school.

September 14: Students, new and old, were stricken with the plague of little white cards — registration. The nurses were run ragged treating cases of writer's cramp and deflated pocketbookitis. Three hundred freshmen breathed their first college air.

Mary Ann Simrell, Benita Horton, Greta Shaw, Liz Romine and Doug Knight take their turn at the mobile X-ray unit. No educated T.B. germs for them.

September 15: A gathering of the clan of the Union Leaders Conference ended in a banquet fit for a group of very hungry people. Robert Shaffer, assistant dean of students at Indiana University, was the guest speaker.

Highlighting the freshman party was the birth, premiere performance and fade-out of a definitely different quartet whose chief ingredients were Danny Stiles, Ronnie Statz, Dwayne Scott and Ron Murphy.

September 23: It was quite obvious that no defrosting was necessary at the Ice-Breaker Ball of 1954. The dance marked the official opening of the social season at Evansville College and was sponsored by S.G.A. Joan Bosse straw-bossed the affair.

Elected by the freshman class, Joyce Reed and Jim Casper were crowned as an audience of approximately 600 looked on. The royal couple reigned supreme, wearing their crowns with grace and dignity. Bill Steier did the honors while Doug Barthlow spied words of welcome.

Tripping the light fantastic, manipulating the mambo and lingering over a lindy kept the dancers entertained and the musicians winded.

September 28: Twenty-five ways to flunk out of school — Activities Day. The big onslaught came at 10:00, with upperclassmen practicing super salesmanship on naive freshmen. Booths and blanks were the predominant theme in the mass migration to the Union Building. Who knows what mysterious machinations lie behind the innocent expressions and bright smiles of this memorable day?

SWANSON-nunn

October 8: Evansville College began its homecoming festivities with Nealie Moman and Jackie King lending a helping hand in the publicity. The tilt with Valpo was, figuratively, shouted from the housetops.

To whet the appetite of the crowd before the varsity game, those two female "powerhouse" teams, the Alpha Omicron Pi-Phi Mu eleven against the Chi Omega-Beta Sigma Omicron crew, met in the Revlon Bowl. Bill Parish was the blushing sovereign, elected, crowned and kissed before a cheering crowd. The following Monday, enthusiastic rooters dragged Main in a five-block-long parade.

Jane Chanley, DeLoris Hartig, Sara Warren and Dell Patterson polish up one of the "cars" loaned for the parade by the Olde Time Auto Club.

The Union Finance Committee, sponsoring "Mum's the Word," gave free rein to Randy Wilkinson, Gerriann Frasier, Anita Aders and Don Deller to practice their persuasive methods as Bruce Lomax forks over the cold cash.

October 14: Evansville College Union was graced by two performances from the nationally known combination songsters and "jazz" combo, the Four Freshmen. Playing to a full house both times, the Freshmen tickled their listeners' ears with such favorites as "Indian Summer," "Blue World," "Please Remember," "We'll Be Together Again," and "Mood Indigo." After singing the audience into a sentimental mood, the four jolted everybody and everything from their seats with "Jeepers Creepers" and "How Do You Like Your Eggs in the Morning?"

November 5: Second of the sweater hops at Evansville College was the Beanie Ball celebrating the closing of the "pod parade" for the freshmen on campus. Music for this grand fete was furnished by the Danny Stiles Combo in the patio. Their mellow music kept the "beanie" boys and babes rocking from 9:00 to 12:00. Carolyn Lockwood wielded the whip over the Dance Committee for the event.

November 11: The young men of the Union Committees finally went West. A slue of females accompanied them, though, to the Dude Ranch party.

Sharon Bebout, Darlene Schillinger, Jim Jensen, Gene Hollander and Elma Vogel try their luck at the games while Jim Barney, Barbara Hulvershorn, Eldon Katter, Bobbie Campbell and Harold Byers fill up on food. Later came the frolicking as Ray Bauer called several toe-tapping, hand-clapping square dances.

November 13: The long-suffering, never-forgotten Dad finally came to the front. While DeLoris Hartig, Greta Shaw, Wilma Kamman and Jane Taylor circulated as cigarette girls, the "pops" winned and dined. Earlier, Acting President Dean Long presented the Dad-of-the-Year award to Paul B. Mattingly.

Trying to make the visiting "dads" feel a part of the college life, John Conway, Rosemary Mohr, Jack Miller, Wilma Kamman and DeLoris Hartig spell out a big "H-E-L-L-O-O-O."

November 25: Phyllis Bunge, BAK representative, and Danny Stiles, Pi Epsilon Phi, edged out Carol Schoolfield and Wendy Long to cop the titles of Mr. and Miss Red Feather in the campus Community Chest drive. Each won by polling the greatest number of pennies in jars provided in the Union Building. The SGA Welfare Committee sponsored the drive.

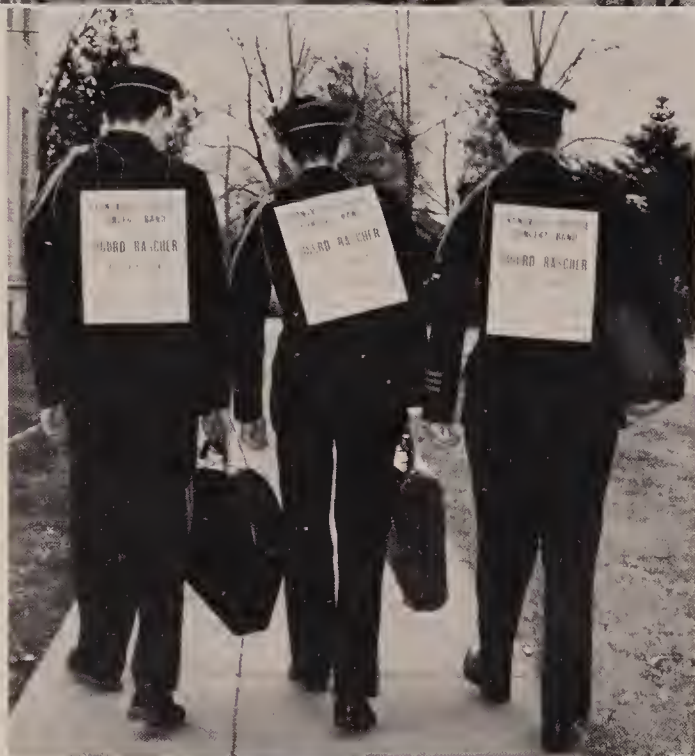

December 10: A college sponsored "trimming" was the first indication that Christmas was just around the corner. Two trees were "balled and bangled" for the season, one in the lobby, another in the patio. Members of the Union House Committee bossed the affair. Jerry Newton and Connie Miller supervised decorations in the patio; Carol Schellhase and Joan Luckett the lobby, and Jane Dreher, the lounge and browsing room. Here Wilma Kamman, Bette Sharp, Jean Hurst and Pat Parrish add snowflakes for a realistic air — although the temperature stayed quite moderate. Afterwards the decorators journeyed to the lounge for refreshments.

December 17: Kris managed to arrive in Evansville early enough to cut some fancy didoes at the annual All-Campus Christmas party. Out of his pack came entertainment in the form of Carol Schoolfield, Hal Burckhardt and Tom Lukens. Another surprise package brought a quartet of student nurses, Jane Taylor, Jeanette Liggett, Margie Warren and Lois Somers, accompanied by LaNova Cook, before the footlights. Dancing in the grill to the music of the Phi Mu Alpha dance band, under the direction of Dwayne Scott, was from 9-11. A new lighting system was christened, adding a soft, sleepy haze, transforming the Wooden Indian into a typical night club.

January 4: Composed of representatives from each sorority and fraternity, INCA and the unaffiliated student body, the Notables-Leaders Committee met to nominate students for this honor. Members were Gil Bumb, Martha Powell, Bob Porro, Jim Schreiber, Mary J. Nendel, Marilyn Tate, Bob Rundell, Doc Campbell, Mary L. Taylor and Joan Bosse.

January 20: Literally blowing itself wild, the Evansville College Band opened its first concert of the season in the Bosse High School auditorium January 24, with Sigurd Rascher, saxophone virtuoso, as guest artist. Phi Mu Alpha pledges publicized the event as part of their pledge duties. The fraternity also entertained at a coke party in the Union following the concert.

January 21: Ben Reading, Stanley Nevill, Carolyn Conaway and Connie Miller demonstrate lung power on candles of the Union birthday cake. The steel and stone structure, newest addition to Evansville College, took the place of the wooden TUB four years ago and has celebrated a birthday every year since. The giant party was held in the candlelit grill with free coffee and cake.

February 4: Princess Hopekaw, the grill's sweetheart, left her glass observation case to reign over one of the many sweater hops. These informal dances were sponsored by the various Union Committees and always emphasized the "drag or stag" idea. Most of the music was furnished either by Jim Schneider and his combo or the local juke box.

February 11: Jerko Jelly Beans, an internationally unknown company, moved Heaven and their complete store of "colored confections" to the Great Hall for the entertainment of the basketball team and any other interested party. In their quiz show, a parody of "Break the Bank," toastmaster Bob Rundell stumped contestant Jackie King and John Koehler with the first group of "brain-wash" questions, resulting in a shower of whipped cream for John, hysterics for Jackie and gales of laughter from the entire audience. Later, Frank Healy, answering a consolation question, was rewarded by a bagful of beans. S.C.A. was in charge of the assembly.

February 18: Surrounded by crepe paper bows of each organization's colors, the Danny Stiles combo played red hot and deep blue music at the annual Pledge Dance in the Great Hall. All sorority and fraternity pledges appeared, dressed in their best "bib and tucker," at 9:00, and left at 12:00, due to Phi Zeta road trips and Panhellenic rules.

February 18: "Murder Gross," instead of Mardi Gras, was the theme of Phi Zetas' traditional Hell Week, ending in a mass pledge-parade downtown Friday night and roughhouse, Saturday. The peace-loving citizens of the Crescent City were panicked by the clownish costumes and bizarre behavior of the cavorting "mice and men."

February 25: Not to be outdone and with a week more of anticipation under their belts, the Pi Epsilon Phi fraternity actives swept together their "scum" and marched the "infidels" up and down Main Street. Tasks went from sending the overanxious pledges up lampposts and into trash cans to clowning among the ranks of Friday night shoppers, causing general confusion and chaos.

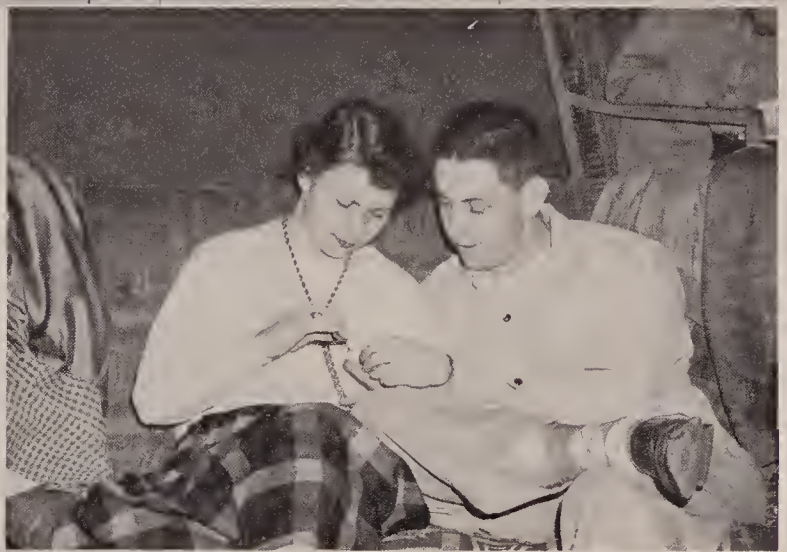

March 7: Then all was dwarfed by thoughts of the immediate future — exam week. The temperature on campus rose twenty degrees because of the energy expended in study. With much foresight, study and from past experiences, students realized that food kept up energy so the Wooden Indian ranked number one "in the places to go to study" Gallup poll. The No-Doz factory and midnight oil company did a "booming" business.

March 9: "Operation Ball" called for some tall planning, including the use of the finer points of military strategy. The Armory was the scene of this "Waterloo," with a replica of a jet fighter as the center of the decorating theme. Yards of crepe paper and millions of glittering stars suspended from the ceiling completed the illusion. Ralph Flanagan furnished the proper diversion.

March 24: Mad music and delightful dancing seemed to be the theme for the Philos' Blackouts of 1955. The fraternity extravaganza featured the popular recording artists, The Four Lads. Jimmy Stewart, announcer on WEHT-TV, emceed the two-hour show which also boasted the Beshears, well-known local dance team, the Chi Omega dancers and a "Show Business" routine by the AOPi's — Joan Hamel, Greta Shaw, Mary Giovanetti, Wilma Kamman, Bette Sharp and Lois Ryon.

April 11: Those rough, rugged spring classes are pure torture for the nature-loving students and the fishermen on the faculty. Sara Rupp and John Happel "struggle" through a class on student sociology and community interest. (These are held in the Union lounge.)

May 2: The annual AFROTC inspection and review kept the cadets polishing brass and practicing drills every pretty day available. Visiting dignitaries, General Matthew K. Diechmann and Mayor H. O. Roberts, were on hand to witness the snappy marching and cadet awards.

May 3: Three heads were better than one in laying the groundwork for the May Day-Honors Day festival. Bill Steier, Major Evan Bruner and Jim Jensen planned the affair, following the traditional pattern with the Maypole dance, honors assembly and free picnic lunch.

May 3: Not one of the gaily bedecked juniors or seniors that blithely boarded the riverboat "Avalon" dreamed that their prom party would turn into a slightly "Arctic" affair. The mercury dropped steadily and all dancers took to the boiler room or unloaded the coat rack. Marilyn Bartlett and Bob Rundell braved the wintry breeze to study the scenery along the riverbanks.

May 14: Eisenhower and Stevenson had nothing on Evansville College when it came to elections. Weeks ahead of time, poster-parties were in full swing. At 10 o'clock on the fated day, a parade began the merrymaking which ended in a hushed silence at 4:15 P.M. in front of the Union. When the dust had settled and the dead bodies were swept away, a two-way party split was evident. Bill Steier and Marilyn Randolph, backed by the Philos, Acacia, AOPi and Phi Mu; and Bob Rundell and Carolyn Lockwood, from the Phi Zetas, INCA, Beta Sig and Chi O factions emerged victorious.

June 7: Finis, terminar, "kaput," in any language it means the same thing — the end. That's what the long black robes and the white diplomas signified for some 165 seniors who were graduated from Evansville College. The exercises were held on the front lawn, followed by a reception on the Union Building terrace.

WHAT'S THE BIGGEST BARGAIN YOU CAN BUY TODAY?

How about electricity?

Of course, your electric bill may be bigger than it used to be, but the facts are that in the last 15 years the price per kilowatt-hour of electricity has actually gone down! What boosts your bill is the fact that today you use 2 to 3 times as much, if you're an average user.

Just think for a minute of all the electric appliances you can enjoy today: automatic washer, ironer (ironing in half the time!), mixer, food freezer (sweet June peas in January!), dishwasher (no more dishpan hands!), vacuum cleaner, disposal unit — to name just a few time-and-work savers, many of which didn't even exist 15 years ago.

Small wonder if your bill looks bigger. But look at all you're getting for it! And at a price so low that electricity is still the biggest bargain in the family budget today!

Graduation — an Ending and a Beginning . . .

. . . As one door closes, another always opens. For you who have just graduated, the NEXT door of opportunity is now open wide. And so we find it, all through life. We must make our own endings and beginnings.

Someone will always earn the right to step through these open doors to greater advancement. The task ahead for each of us — in school, in business or in any calling, is to keep ourselves so prepared that we may deserve to enter those of our choosing.

And, sometimes we may find a prized door to better living rudely slammed shut against us. Why? It is wiser to assume that the reason rests within us — not with others.

Then, we can correct our approach and gain the right to reopen it . . . or to enter through another to an even more noteworthy achievement.

But Evansville College's new President, Melvin W. Hyde, looks to the future as he checks records with Professor Dean Long.

LOOKING BACK

When a job is completed, our thoughts often turn back . . .

A bubbling crew of sixteen determined neophytes, we began what at times looked as though we might never end — our version of the yearbook. This was way back in June of '54. Since then we've created, stalked, propagandized, worried and yes, worked. But always we laughed. Through it all, each of us knew what he wanted — a yearbook that we could be proud of. I only hope that we have that in the 1955 LinC.

Our one underlying objective has been that of simplicity — simplicity in plan, content, pictures, copy, typography and layout. Secondly, we tried for dignity and third, for a touch of glamour. We made 1955 a "first" for the secretarial staff . . . the Union core committees . . . "Kampus Kapers" acts . . . gentlemanly football and basketball shots. We simplified identification . . . cropped from a negative thereby bringing out the important . . . emphasized black and white . . . made mistakes and omissions — for these, we apologize.

During the year, we learned a lot of things — how to remove rubber cement, spend our spare time, type, and elicit smiles at just the right second, but most of all we learned to work with each other. We touched upon that intangible something that doesn't come from a book or isn't offered in a course . . . I guess it's called effective human relations.

Too, we met some newcomers we'll never forget. There's Mr. Cronin and Zelpha, who knew what I wanted even when I didn't; Tommy Mueller who always came through and days ahead of time; Miss Fleener who did everything imaginable to accommodate us, and Bob Koch and Lavonne who photographed the beauty.

Thanks also to Miss Moberly who loaned us everything loanable and then some, but most of all who listened to our problems and usually led us to the answer . . . to Mr. Olmsted for going through his negative files over and over . . . to Byron Scott for the aerial view . . . to Gloria for filling in when Jerry resigned . . . to Rick, Barb and Linda for selling ads . . . to Jak Williams, Ken and Combs for snapping pictures . . . to Mary Giovanetti who wrote when we needed something written . . . to Miss Martin for her patience, advice and unending willingness to do whatever had to be done . . . to a swell staff . . . to my Mother who somehow lived with me during the past twelve months . . .
